In the bible, 40 days stands for so much. it is used about 159 times in the bible. in those times, it meant trial, testing or judgement. However, after those days, God seemed to restore those things that were lost. So with keeping a positive outlook on life, I decided to try to motivate you for 40 days, to produce change in your thinking. The seed you plant on day 1, should be a beautiful flower in 40 days, because that's all he needs.
