Susan Proudleigh (Classic Reprint) De Lisser

Susan bitterly; I know I am hated in this low neighbourhood. But I dont see what them should hate me for, for I never interfere wid any of them, Them hate yu because you are better than them, and because yu dont mix with them, sagaciously answered Catherine, her second sister. That they will never get me to do, snapped Susan. I wouldnt mix with a lot of people who are not my companions, even if them was covered from top to toe with gold. It is bad enough that I have to live near them, but further than that I am not going. It is good morning and good evening with me, an that is all. Then them will always hate you, said Catherine, and if them can injure yu them will try to do it.
