St. Louis has good reason to be proud of its baseball team. The Cardinals have captured an amazing 10 World Series championships. Over the years, the team has showcased a long line of spectacularly talented players, including Rogers Hornsby, who won the Major League Baseball Triple Crown twice during the 1920s, and Albert Pujols, who many consider today's best baseball player. This colorful book, which includes a timeline, photoglossary, and engaging text takes readers on a tour of this great American team.
