Green Calder Grass Janet Dailey

Legendary New York Times bestselling author Janet Dailey sweeps readers back to Montana and into the lives of Ty and Jessy Calder, in the newest novel in her beloved Calder Family saga.

In the 26 years since her first book was published, Janet Dailey has become the third largest-selling writer of women's fiction, known for her strong, decisive characters, her extraordinary ability to recreate a time and place, and her unerring courage to confront important, controversial issues in her stories. Her bestselling novels featuring the Calder family have won her the devotion of readers everywhere. Now, in "Green Calder Grass," she continues the story of Ty and Jessy Calder, begun in Calder Born, Calder Bred, whose destiny is intertwined with the terrain itself -- bold, wild, untamed, and unpredictable.

Headstrong and proud, with her roots stuck deep in Calder soil, Jessy Niles Calder always knew that Ty Calder was the man for her, even if she had to wait for him to leave behind his loveless marriage to glamorous, poor little rich girl Tara. Now, as Ty's wife, Jessy finally has everything she's ever wanted.

And then Tara returns. As manipulative as she is beautiful, Tara has never brought anything with her but trouble. When Tara's powerful father dies, she leans on Ty and his sister, Cat, for comfort and strength. And soon, Tara's back on the land and in their lives, and nothing is the same.

With everything at risk -- from the ranch she loves to the name she proudly calls her own -- Jessy Calder is in for the fight of her life. Determined to make Ty Calder hers at all costs, Tara has stirred a lust for revenge from an old danger. . .a secret link to the past that will do more than test the fabric of the Calder clan. . .it will threaten their very existence. . .and end in a loss more heartbreaking than any of them could imagine.
