Family Secrets Mary Cambron-Collard

Jimmy Joe Jones was 5 years old when his father killed his mother over custody of him. A witness to the murder grabbed him and ran. After evaluating the situation, she kept little Jimmy. Nineteen years later Jimmy is manipulated into taking a job as an undercover agent for federal drug enforcement. His assignment is to rejoin his dysfunctional biological family and infiltrate their illegal activities. As Jimmy charts the stormy seas of the secrets of the convoluted Jones family, he spends a lot of time in prayer and talking on the phone to members of his adoptive family who serve as an anchor through the process of dealing with the unexpectedly complex situation.
