Venus and Serena Williams (Women Who Win) Virginia Aronson

Even as children, Venus and Serena Williams showed a natural athletic talent and a drive to succeed on their local tennis courts. Since then the sisters have beaten many of the top female players in the world and have now achieved super stardom. They made history by becoming the highest-ranking African-American sisters in the tennis world. Despite their tennis rivalry and the stress that fame can bring, Venus and Serena remain close friends.
