American Surrealist: The Art of Richard Hagerty Richard Hagerty

American Surrealist presents a stunning collection of works by artist Richard Hagerty. Surrealism provides the inspiration for Hagerty's art, from his earliest dream-based watercolors of the late 1970s to his striking and brilliant oil paintings of today. Through his art, Hagerty brings to life the essence and visions of the conscious, the unconscious, and the imagination. The compilation features more than 250 works including 175 color reproductions, black-and-white sketches, uniquely-painted bones and found objects, which Hagerty has created over the past 40 years. With an essay by art historian Roberta Sokolitz and an interview with writer Gary Smith.
