Jake

I can't believe my coach assigned me a tutor. I dominate the field and between the sheets—who cares about grades?

But Claire doesn't treat me like I'm stupid. When we're not busy arguing like idiots, she actually encourages me. Something no other woman had done before. And with those sexy curves of hers, I know just how to thank her. And thank her thoroughly.

Claire

I hate football players, but I need the money. Jake is just as cocky and arrogant as the worst of them ... but his touch sets me on fire.

I have to believe he's different, that he won't use me and break my heart. Because I can't stop wanting him. I just hope I survive the ride.

Draw Play is a steamy standalone, full-length football sports romance novel. It's only recommended for audiences 18+. No cheating. No cliffhangers. Guaranteed HEA.
