Bears are powerful and fascinating creatures, as agile climbing a tree as they are swift runners and protective parents. In Bears 2008, world-renowned photographers have captured all aspects of these splendid animals, creating a gallery of bears as rarely seen. Enjoy 12 candid shots of brown, black, grizzly and polar bears in different seasons and various environments, and in scenes both intimate and powerful, from playing with sibling cubs to fishing for salmon. An informative caption adds meaning to each photograph.

From the start of the year to the end and with each new encounter, you're certain to be intrigued, amazed and even entertained by the remarkable bear.
