After centuries under the sod, warlock John Willard is more than ready to wreak vengeance on the descendants of the superstitious bigots who sent him to the gallows. Salem is no longer the little Puritan town it was when the infamous witch trials took place, but a resurrected Willard is pleased to find two beautiful suburban sisters and their attractive offspring as his first victims. Himself a victim of religious hysteria and sexual repression, Willard introduces the two families to incestuous perversions on a grand scale? and proves that revenge is indeed a meal best eaten cold. Illustrated by Vania Zouravliov.
