A Country Practice: Book 1: New Beginnings (Volume 1) Judith Colquhoun

Welcome to Australia's best loved country town. Based on the award-winning, international hit television series A Country Practice this new series of novels follows the lives and loves of the rural community of Wandin Valley, South-Eastern Australia. It's 1981 and a desperate woman arrives at the Wandin Valley Bush Nursing Hospital in the final stages of labour. Can Dr Terence Elliot overcome his demons to save both mother and baby? Simon Bowen, the newest doctor in town, is frustrated at being seen as an outsider by the tight knit country folk. Will he succeed in winning them around - especially young vet Vicky Dean? Vicky's mum, Sister Shirley Dean, is courted by widowed police sergeant Frank Gilroy. But is he the man for her? Brendan and Molly Jones arrive in Wandin Valley. Are they prepared for the realities of country life? Meanwhile, a teenager in love clashes with her father and a serious car accident reveals a surprising secret about two of the town's residents. Whether you are already a fan of A Country Practice, or are meeting the locals of Wandin Valley for the first time, you'll be captivated by this entertaining, poignant, and heart-warming look at an Australian rural town and its inhabitants.
