New and Collected Poems for Children

New and Collected Poems for Children

In the world of British poetry, Carol Ann Duffy is a superstar.' (Guardian) This stellar edition of her poems brings together work from her four award-winning collections for children, and sprinkles in a generous helping of new poems to match. From her dazzlingly debut Meeting Midnight through to her newest, brightest poems, Carol Ann Duffy's writing for younger readers has always bubbled with wit and humor, intelligence and affection, and introduced us to many strange and wonderful characters along the way. Among the enchanting voices to be heard are those of the Loch Ness Monster's husband, the oldest girl in the world and a herd of cows on a shopping trip to Manchester.

Willie Collins:

As a college student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or even make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country.
