The Secret Stifler: Incipient Sandemanianism and preaching the gospel to sinners David H.J. Gay
Sandy what? Never heard of it! Perhaps not. But you certainly have met it. In its incipient form it is the greatest blight to afflict the preaching of the gospel today. David Gay has got to grips with this pernicious error, and his book should be of vital interest to every believer. Michael Haykin: ‘This is an extremely important book. Cogently and compellingly it refutes a core error that is widespread in far too many contemporary evangelical circles... As David Gay demonstrates, true conversion is rooted in a radical change of the affections of the heart and manifest in doxological theology and a lifestyle that lives for the glory of God. In a day when the Christian faith is increasingly marginalized in Western society, we need a clear idea of the faith for which we need to be contending. This book is an enormous help to that end’.
