Dear Dance Student, This guide is designed to instruct your development, adaptations, manipulations and your continued success as a dancer. Use this guide; write in it, tear out pages, or draw feet if you need to see feet, but please just don't put it on the shelf. It can't help you there. It's also designed as a quick and easy reference during class time and at home. Repetition is the key to developing your dancing. There's no magic trick, just practice. Perfection is an ideal. Just when you have all the right moves, the dance changes. Dance is an art form. I hope you'll find this guide useful. Whether this is your first, last, or tenth class, enjoy the process. Good luck and keep dancing.
