[Siren Classic: Erotic Cowboy Romance] Kelli Godfrey believes in small town pride and holds onto the virtue that a person has but only one thing of value to give-trust. If you can't be a person of your word, then you aren't a person worthy of loyalty. Carter Banks holds a tight rein on his personal life. Even the lawyers in his firm must sign a confidentiality clause before obtaining a position within his brokering firm. But when he finds the love of his life and loses her, how will he handle seeing her with another man? What will he do? He has two choices: fight for her like a Neanderthal, or let her go and be happy-and pray he doesn't die from the heartache. ** A Siren Erotic Romance
