Tango, Lingerie and Geomorphology Michael Boyle

This poetry collection provides a variety of brief, subtle tastes of the tango experience both for the uninitiated and for those that have already immersed themselves into that South American river that flows throughout the world. Tango is not separate from other obsessions: desire, exploration and relationships. This volume with its four chapters (tandas) can be read in sequence. These poems are transparently linked by the most delicate of narrative threads, woven over a ten year period.
