Seven Plays H.D. Greaves

Though written for youngsters, these seven plays are suitable for audiences of all ages. All but one have been successfully produced in the U.S. by amateur theatre companies as well as university theatre departments. You will find here simple plays in one act, as well as full-length dramas epic in scope, comedies and melodramas. There is even a short radio play, which offers an illuminating moral, and a whimsical farce to be acted by clowns. These plays are also fun to read, and especially to read out loud.
