Shepherd Brown – the Good Shepherd, cares for a hundred sheep. He takes them to green pastures, leads them to drink from quiet, clear waters, and teaches them to look out for others. But that is not all. Shepherd Brown saves the day when he enters the barn just in time to see the big, bad wolf climbing in through a window! He restores rest and order in the flock and all is well again, until Ba'boy, ashamed of how his selfish deed had endangered the lives of his fellow sheep, drags slowly behind and gets lost. Find out what happens. This collection of three stories teach your little one about the gentle, loving nature of Jesus.
