Do you just look at the foot prints in the sand and not the spirit direction foot prints are following? As I took the journey to walk in the spirit with Jesus Christ those foot prints as I acknowledged him directed my path. As I took the journey to walk in the spirit with Jesus Christ those foot prints as I acknowledged him directed my path. This book is about a simple man who through many hardships, struggle, setbacks but victories in Jesus Christ, learned about the spirit of God. The learning became so contagious that he sought and longed to be united with that spirit and walking in that spirit all the days of his life. When the young man got baptized in Jesus name for the remission of sins and received the Holy Ghost the journey of the walk was in full motion. All honor and glory goes to Jesus Christ and the ultimate destination is heaven. The true inspirational message was to encourage all with faith and to obtain the spirit and to be baptized with the Holy Ghost and fire. We all look to take a journey in our lives that would lead to our eternal destiny. The journey in the spirit and the journey of the flesh is a course all takes who Jesus gives the opportunity to. As Jesus said in the bible says "that what is born of flesh is flesh ad that what is born of spirit is spirit". St. John 3:6
