Along with the fundamental query: Who Am I?, perhaps the most important research within the larger sphere of our spiritual path concerns the essential quest for the meaning of our lives. Why you, Why now takes you through a series of discussion inquiries into the importance of meaning as you evolve along your path - all with the imperative of discerning the real reason you're on the planet. In this context, you'll find out that meaning is not simply a purpose you strive to fulfill but the distinct art of discovering your spiritual calling. In Why you, Why now, Stephano also describes the various pathways to meaning and follows with a practical examination of how you can find your true mission through a series of poignant, self-directed questions and subsequent reflections on the answers your "inner teacher" provides, spiritual meaning reveals itself like a spontaneous awakening.
