Abe is training to be a Catholic priest, but some of what he is told to preach doesn't sit comfortably, especially the stuff about sex and love. The night before his ordination, he goes out to find out who he is, what he wants and whether he should complete his training. Picked up as a rave-pet by Gaby and Adam, tonight's events will change everything forever. Should they save God from the church? A play about sex, love, religion and the roots of homophobia. A dark play, tinged with humour. A STAGEPLAY FOR 4 ACTORS "Pushes the boundaries of normal theatre...a piece of pure brilliance bordering on lyrical genius...all guns blazing, this is a play not to be missed." Rob Gemmel, Lancashire Life "The Call of Nature is a clever, witty, challenging play...not for the faint-hearted, we strongly encourage you to try and get a ticket..." Iain Scott, Canal-Street.co.uk "A story that at first seemed focused on sex, drink, and drugs added layers of mystery almost every minute." Fran Slater, The Manchester Reviews
