Billy Bear Cub: The Well Mannered Cub Chad Lisse

Billy Bear the well-mannered cub is a perfect book for the kindergarten and first grade levels, and not just parents can use this book but other people like teachers, other relatives of small children, and libraries. Follow Billy the well-mannered cub and his mother as they have a full days adventure with her teaching and explaining to Billy how to act, talk to other people, and be safe while having fun doing it. The illustrations are simple enough for little ones, but detailed enough to allow the reader to emotionally absorb the book without even reading any of the words. Adults will enjoy the colorful and whimsical illustrations as much as their kids. The illustrations are colorful, simple, and entertaining, the children can really use their imagination in visualizing not only how to perform these manners but to excel and gain confidence in whatever they try to accomplish. These are the basic fundamental rules and guides to show how fun and easy it is for new parents and young children on how to be safe, friendly, and make an impact in a world where good manners for young children and new parents have wandered off the path.
